

A monthly update on what is going on in the...

Medezeggenschap

In this update: trainings and a social media toolkit from the ministry of Education for student participation elections. We wish you a good election result!

Warm regards,

Zino & Rémi

In need of some training?

After several successful lobbying and WHW training sessions in Nijmegen, Maastricht, Amsterdam and Groningen, we are now focusing on the participation elections that are coming up at many institutions. Do you need help with, for instance, applying for funding or support from your university for the elections? Or are you looking for ways to reach more students? We would be happy to help! We can drop by or give you a call. Send us an email at lof@lsvb.nl. :)

Do you also want to influence important topics at your college or university?

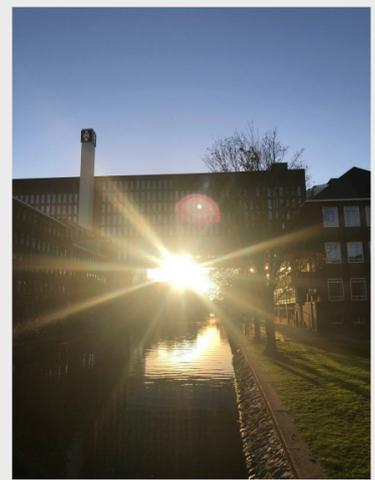

Because it is important that as many students as possible vote, ISO, LSVb, VMH, LOVUM, LOF, HBOMZ, UNL, VH and the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science today make an urgent appeal towards students in particular to go and vote. This is done under the banner 'Choose for better education'. Go and vote: whether for a programme committee, partial or faculty council or central (student) council. This is in your own interest and that of your college or university. The message, in which members of the council tell what they have achieved in one of the councils, is distributed via the social media channels of the initiators and of the colleges and universities.

Do you want to contribute as a student party with your own socials? You can download the media package here: <https://we.tl/t-hePeGfKiaV>.

Universities are also encouraged to publish them on their official accounts.

Do you have a tip or suggestion on how other co-determination officers should approach the elections? Share it in the LinkedIn group.

Coming up...

MenstruWeek

On Monday May 15th 19:00-21:00 we are joining forces with Periodic.nl to discuss initiatives at universities regarding menstrual products during MenstruWeek in Utrecht. Do you have a nice idea or want to contribute? We would love to hear from you! Official invitation will follow later.

LOF application

Applications for the LOF board for next academic year will open soon. Are you the board member who will make co-determination great (again)? Keep an eye on your mailbox ;).

Website under construction

We are still hard at work setting up a new website. You will find more information in the next mail a.s.a.p.
